

Employee of the Month

Tenesia Baker, RMA CNA

Tenesia has demonstrated exceptional dedication in her role, consistently going above and beyond by stepping in to cover additional shifts in both Assisted Living and the Health Center. Her willingness to support wherever she is needed reflects her strong commitment to both her team and the organization.

She provides compassionate, attentive care to residents while building meaningful relationships with their families, embodying the values of RWC. Though she is quiet, her kind and caring nature shines through in every interaction. Her reliability, teamwork, and genuine dedication make her a valued member of the RWC community and truly deserving of Employee of the Month.

Star Recognition Winner
Jennifer Mitchell

Always having a joyful spirit. I called Jennifer needing help. Jennifer jumped right in to help me with a great attitude and no questions asked. Thank you Jennifer!
